One day I found a bottle with a piece of paper inside it. I broke it then I grabbed the piece of paper. It was a piece of a story it was a story of captain crunch how he died in 1800. It said he was a sailor, here is the story. One day Captain Crunch was the strongest man in the world. He wanted to sail all around the world to capture the whale shark monster. One of his crew members spotted the whale shark monster. He said it was but it was just wood.

They were reched in the middle of the Atlantic ocean by a meteor that came from the sky, then their ship sank. Captain crunch swam with his arms all the way over to New York and had to buy a new boat at the fishing store. Then he went to look for the rest of his crew. No one was found just feet floating in the sea. The next two years Captain Crunch got new crew members.

Then he and his new crew went for a search at Antarctica instead they found big foots brother the abominable snow man and they killed him. Then they went for Bigfoot. Then they saw him in the state of South Dakota and they chased after him to shoot him down till he died but missed. So then he had to reload his sniper rifle. And went to find a place to camp a night or two so he set out some traps with garlic for big foot. The next morning he told his crew he was going to find big foot. He grabbed his sniper rifle then went on the hunt for big foot.

He was walking in the woods. He was looking at a figure behind a tree he aimed at the figure and pulled the trigger. He shot it in the head the figure fell over. He went to see who or what it was. He saw it was Bigfoot. Well he thought it was Big foot when he saw the zipper on his back. He took off the costume and saw it was one of his crew members.

He went back to ask the rest of his crew members about why Mike was wearing a costume that looked like Bigfoot. Because he shot him in the head. But when he got back to the camp his crew members were gone. He went back to the city of New York. And went to one Mike's house then his wife said I thought they were with you.

He had to lie about them he said oh I forgot they're at the store. Then he said ill go pick them up. But still had to tell her that he accidentally shot her husband in the head. But he told her and she started to cry then she tricked him, and she swiftly shot him in the head. And that is how Captain Crunch died in year 1800 from a bullet. Mikes wife went to prison for murder.
